Dearest Bill,

Well, the first day of school is over with. I just went till 9:45. No classes. Just enrollment & lockers. Sorta good to get back in the old rut again!

Shirley came home at noon in the best of spirits. But, she stood upon the bus & the driver told her to set down. So she says she doesn't like school to well. She was crying this evening & said she didn't like school. I'll change that, I think.

I came home & slept most of the afternoon & I'm still sleepy. But, I guess I'll get caught upon my sleep one of these nights between now & Friday.

Did you make it home abright Monday night? How far did you get before the balloon burst?

It didn't rain much down here Monday night. Daddy took me to the corner. So I didn't walk.

I'll hit you ate another supper when you got home! Me? I've signed off eating until the next meal! Ha!!

Oh yes, tell Harold I saw Shirley today. She was very sweet. She wanted to know all about ~~you~~. I wonder why? She said the girl that Harold got would have to be good! Don't tell him she last tho. <sup>HA</sup> She thinks she knows him pretty well, I guess. But I wonder if she does. She really fell far poor Harold. Hard too!

Shirley has to go to school with 3 negro kids. She don't like it either.

Of all things! I've taken some cold. I don't know how I could. Not bad tho.
I don't know where I got it!!!

I sure hope the car is running Saturday!!

Well, honey, as I'm a school girl now I've got to get to bed early so I had better close.
Hope to see you real soon! huk.

All my Love, as ever
Margie
